Life Bured by Her Heavy -Two Boys Thrown

The is a sen of Intelligence.

The is a sen of Thomas Young, North Third street, was engaged at Monday afternoon in shooting the boy was using an air gun and the intelligence. Just as he fired the gun and the intelligence in the gun and the gun and the gun and g ofween him and the target and re-pullet in her right breast. The accithe bullet in her right breast. The acciment much dismay among the family, we thought the child was seriously and. Dr. Berntheisel was hastiy sumand and an examination was made of the sud, which was bleeding considerably.
The the physician thought the bullet had ared the flesh and had intended to probe it, but, after further examination, he said a heavy woolen bodice, and then de a dint in an undergarment. This part the clothing had been pushed into the de, causing the flesh wound. The doctor and a this instance as a remarkable one,
the only thing that prevented the tuilet peacetraing the body was the heavy the garment. The wound was made in right breast between two ribs, and was a menious eccape from serious injuries.

Upset in the River.

Monday afternoon Phil Gossler and III Tyson, two boys of about fifteen years were out on the river in a sail-boat. when very near the middle of the river the all could not be managed and the boat was just, throwing the boys into the river. The all fall from the boat, which turned upside town in the water. The boys were able to wim and hung to the boat at the bow and tera. Several parties on the Wrightsville hore noticed the predicament of the boys set paid no attention to their appeals for assistance. Two men from town secured a ow boat and weat to their help. The copy were taken into the boat and with the all-boat taken to Wrightsville, where everying was put in proper condition. The sail-boat was rowed back to Columbia. The boys were in the water for about one-half our, but did not suffer any ill effects from heir mishaps, excepting a good wetting.

Robbing the Orphans. Last night, about midnight, thieves broke to the spring house connected with the ome for Friendless Children and stole all milk and cream stored there for the orhans' breskfast this morning. They effected a entrance by breaking open the door with soils stolen from the shop of Mr. Trout, the sums of the Home grounds. They then attached to force an entrance into the resistance of Mrs. Kramph, one of the lady disease of Mrs. Kramph's attendants, who sounded an alarm by blowing horn she had in the house. This wakened Miss Martha Kieffer, matron of the home, who seeded a large dinner bell and mang it vigorously. Very soon a posse of the arger boys was organized and sallied forth tools the burglars, but they had fled, leaving nothing behind them but their shoes and the tools they had stolen from Mr. Froul's shop.

About two weeks ago the home spring come was broken into by theives and robbed fall the butter it contained. Since that time the butter has been kept elsewhere, and it is supposed the thieves, boing disapposed in not finding it in the spring house was locking for; it at Mrs. Kamph's when sey ware heard and scared off as above ne' breekfast this morning. They effected

WHIT-RONDAY BUNGES.

How the Young Men and Women From the Country Enjoyed Themselves, Although there was not so much rain yest. The streets were much livelier than in the forenoon and more people came to town. The country boys who were fortunate enough to have girls spent the time with them in various ways. Some filled them-selves and partners with ice cream and cakes and paraded the principal streets, while many hung around the photograph galleries and had their pictures taken. The more reckless gentlemen, who did not have girls, had their fun in saloons and hotels or in sliding on their stomachs in bowing alleys. Early in the evening they began to leave for their homes. The train which leaves King street at 8 o'clock for Quarryville took a tremendous crowd. They began to gather at the station house at half-past six o'clock, and for a long time the pavement was filled with young men who were hugging their girls or making desperate efforts to secure a female to hug. The girls seemed to enjoy the fun as much as the boys. Several times some young town boys tried to spoil the fun of the countrymen and rows almost always resulted. There was much fun at the station, and the love-making was and paraded the principal streets, while many fun at the station, and the love-making was heartily enjoyed by the lookers on. Pea-nuts and beer were consumed by the quart, and they showed wonderful effects. When the train finally came it was packed

When the train finally came it was packed so full that the raifroad employes could scarcely move through it.

A great many of the townsfolk went out to Tells Hain to attend the picnic of St. Michael's society. There was a very large crowd present notwithstanding the threatening weather. Taylor's orchestra furnished the dancing music and the Liberty band was kent out the grounds all day. They gave kept on the grounds all day. They gave several concerts. Towards evening a few roughs from the city, who sneaked their way into the grounds, attempted to raise a disturbance but it was prompty suppressed by the managers. The picnic was closed at dusk and all reached town at an early hour. At What Glen a picnic was held by the Northern End club. The attendance was not so large but the order was good and those present had a fine time

Lizzie Culp in Trouble Miss Lizzie Culp, who has feequently figured in police courts, is in trouble again. She now resides in Fulton alley and yesterday she purchased a lot of beer in order to celebrate Whit-Monday in a fitting way. She called in a number of her neighbors to help dispose of the brewery goods. Among those who came were Charles Dorwart and wife. to the woman. He thinks that Lizzie hit him with a billy, but Mrs. Dorwart says it was a butcher knile. The accused has been held by Alderman Deen to answer the charges of felonious assault and battery and drawless. donious assault and battery and drunker and disorderly conduct.

A Beautiful Canor.

Mr. Herman Astrich received this morning from Mr. Sprague, a boat builder on the St. Lawrence river, a very beautiful cance, It is 10 feet long and 26 inches beam. It is built of finely seasoned cedar strips fastened against elm ribs with copper nails, clinched on the inside. The canoe is beautifully modeled, and weighs only fourteen pounds. It is propelled by double-bladed paddles, very light and of very pretty design. Mr. Astrich intends to launch it on the Conestoga this evening, weather permitting.

Resignation of a r'astor.

Rev. T. B. Barker, tormerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church in this city, but for some years past rector of Calvary church, Tamaqua, severed his connection with that church on last Friday evening, by resigning the pastorate. The cause of his resignation is not stated, but we learn that it was not with a purpose of accepting another call.

The Way They Do It in New York, An enthusiastic meeting of the Irish Parliamentary fund committee was held at the Hoffman house, New York, on Monday evening, two hundred members being present, and within one hour nearly $14,000 was collected. Six thousand dollars was subscribed for the same purpose in Brooklyn.

A Row on John Street.

Jacob Buzzard, living on John street, cele-brated Whit-Monday by having a keg of beer at his house. His guests, among whom was George Gerlitzki, imbibed pretty freely, and many of them were quarrelsome. Buzzard and Gerlitzki got to blows and Buzzard pro-cured a pistol and it is said shot several times at Gerlitzki, but his aim was bad and Ger-litzki was uninjured. The shooting attracted quite a crowd. No suits have as yet been

When the Boy's Suit can be bought for $5.50 that cost $8 not long ago.

When a quarter to half the price can be saved on very fine quality Trousers from our merchant tailoring samples.

Or Suits for $10 to $15 that have been made by custom workmen and not taken away. Less than half. It's easy enough for people to buy an Ali-Wool Blue Fiannel Suit (the wool indigo dyed in the thread, when it takes only $5. Saturday's sales broke the sizes of this Suit. Another lot coming

Or an Imported Serge that we brought over and made into Men's Suits, Blue and Black, $12 We saved for you on cloth and making costs. It's no difficult matter for people to buy when hey can get an elegant Cheviot at $12 that was Or a $13.50 Suft that they'll only pay $10 for. The truth told about the goods without hold-ing back, a stock without it's like and, a better dollar's worth; these are the things that quick-en Oak Hall's trade.
